We're supplying the industrial tape which has distinct properties of

DIVIDED BY APPLICATION

- Aluminum Tape—high thermal conductivity to maximize efficiency of heating or cooling, high heat reflectivity to protect temperature-sensitive materials against heat damage and hot spots, protect parts from flame damage, seal and protect sensitive surfaces from dust and moisture, resist UV degradation for long-term performance.
- PVC Floor marking tape—These tapes typically employ an aggressive, acrylic adhesive. Be useful for helping workers put materials and equipment back in the right place.
- Polyimide Heat Resistant/High Temperature Adhesive Tape—This high temperature adhesive tape is a high quality tape with adhesive backing, and it can resist to 260 degrees C. It's usually used to keep electronic parts in place and insulated.
- Sticker Adhesive label—These self adhesive solid color code labels are great color coding indicators for inventory purposes. Clearly organize your inventory, receiving, stock and picking. Our color coding dot stickers are made of semi gloss paper and have an industry standard permanent adhesive.
